

NOTICE OF OWNER BUILDER (FORM 2C)

Section 87A, and 90D, Building Act 2004

PURPOSE OF THIS FORM

If you do not give your council/Building Consent Authority (BCA) the form with your consent application, you will need to provide them with a notice that you will carry out restricted building as an owner.

As an owner-builder, you will also need to give them notice if:

- there is a change in you carrying out the restricted building work
- you cease to carry out the restricted building work.

WHO CAN APPLY TO BE AN OWNER-BUILDER?

If you're a homeowner who qualifies for the exemption, you will not need to be or use a licensed building practitioner (LBP) for any restricted building work on your home. However, you will still need to apply for a building consent, and all work must still comply with the Building Code. Your Council/ BCA will inspect your work, and you are responsible for the quality of the work.

Any work you do will be listed as a do-it-yourself job on your Land Information Memorandum for any future buyers to see.

You may qualify as an owner-builder if you:

- live in or are going to live in the home (this includes a bach or holiday home)
- carry out the restricted building work to your own home yourself, or with the help of your unpaid friends and family members
- have not used the Owner-Builder Exemption to carry out restricted building work to any other house in the previous three years.

You cannot carry out all aspects of construction work, even with an Owner-Builder Exemption. This work includes:

- plumbing
- gas-fitting
- drain-laying
- electrical work.

HOW TO SUBMIT THIS NOTICE

If you have not already done so, you need to submit a Statutory Declaration as to Owner-Builder Status (Form 2B) before you can use the owner-builder exemption. Form 2B must be witnessed and signed by a Justice of the Peace, or someone else authorised to do so.

Check with the relevant Council/ BCA for more information on how to submit this notice. Electronic submissions may be available with the applicable Council / BCA on the simpli.govt.nz website.
